Baltimore the Buzz

Master the art of fun.

The art of curiosity.

Curious George: Let's Get Curious

Through June 6 at Port Discovery Children's Museum. Take your family on an adventure with Curious George and his friend, The Man with the Yellow Hat. You'll immerse yourself in Curious George's neighborhood while learning about math, science and engineering through all kinds of fun, interactive games.

Cézanne and American Modernism

"...a fascinating exhibition..." The New York Times Through May 23 at the Baltimore Museum of Art. Discover how Cézanne transformed American art. For the first time, compare 16 of the French master's paintings and watercolors with works by over 30 American artists, including Marsden Hartley, Maurice Prendergast, Alfred Stieglitz and Man Ray.

Shown left - Paul Cézanne, Detail, Five Apples, 1877-78 (K24). Collection of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene K. Thaw

Life, Liberty and Graphic Prints.

From Process to Print: Graphic Works by Romare Bearden

Through March 28 at the Reginald F. Lewis Museum. You'll find over 30 years of important works by Romare Bearden in this comprehensive exhibition. Explore Bearden's unique talent for weaving together the African American experience with literary, biblical, mythological, western and non-western cultural themes.

Life, Liberty, and the Pursuit of Happiness

Through September 5 at the American Visionary Art Museum. See works by African-American civil rights activists, French Revolutionaries, Guantánamo Bay detainees, Holocaust survivors, Iraqi doctors and MORE—all inspired by the quest for human rights and the search for personal fulfillment.
